

DEMOGRAPHIA

Wendell Cox Biographical Brief

Principal, Wendell Cox Consultancy (Demographia)
Metropolitan St. Louis, Missouri-Illinois

Wendell Cox is an international public policy consultant specializing in urban policy, transport and demographics. He has served as a visiting professor, at the Conservatoire National des Arts et Metiers in Paris (a national university).

Wendell Cox is contributing editor of newgeography.com and author of its The Evolving Urban Form series on world urban areas.

He is author, Toward More Prosperous Cities (framing essay on urban areas, urban planning, urban transport and sustainability).

Wendell Cox has completed projects in North America, Europe, Asia, Australia, South America and Africa. Clients have included government agencies, public policy institutes and industry organizations.

Books:

War on the Dream: How Anti-Sprawl Policy Threatens the Quality of Life
The Wal-Mart Revolution (co-author with Richard Vedder)

Co-author of the Demographia International Housing Affordability Survey.

Author, Demographia World Urban Areas (the only regularly published source on population densities for all urban areas in the world over 500,000 population in the world).

Demographia sponsors the following internet websites.

demographia.com
rentalcartours.net
publicpurpose.com

Public Offices and Organizational Positions:

Member, Los Angeles County Transportation Commission, 1977-1985.
Chair, Service Coordination Committee (1977-1985)
Member, Finance Review Committed (1977-1985)
Member, Rail Construction Committe (1982-1985)

Member, Amtrak Reform Council, 1999-2002
Chairman, American Public Transit Association national committees
 Planning & Policy (1982-1984)
 Governing Boards (1984-1985)
Vice-President, CODATU (Lyon, France)

Education

MBA, Pepperdine University, Los Angeles
BA, Government, California State University, Los Angeles